loosely based upon Super Trouper by Abba

(Largely acapella harmony. Single chord strums.)

C F C
Super computer, a trillion transistors

F C G
Too small to stick with glue
Dm G7

But with chemical etching, you
G C

Can have a processor too

C Am Dm G7

C Em
I was sick, of calculating with
Dm G6 G

A slide rule and a pencil
C Em

It's hard to draw, in en-gin-eering
Dm G6 G

I've a compass, rule and a stencil

F C
But from Babbage, Pascal and Alan Turing

F C
Now in pockets and on wrists left or right

F C
Will future humans 'think different'
G7

with-this calculating might?

Cos' Facebook is the truth
Dm G7

Spam and troll and Tweet
G C
There's no need for BBC or Fleet Street

C Am Dm G7

C Em
Get a thousand messages a day,
Dm G6 G
how can anyone claim to be lonely?

C Em
Only with emojis I respond
Dm G6 G
All I need is a Face With, Tears of Joy

F C
There are moments when I, get a little paranoid
F C

What happens if wi-fi gets turned off?
F C

I'll have to think and talk to real people
G7
Real people face to face

Super Computer, hack with the Dark Net,
F C G

Bitcoin, drugs and guns,
Dm G7

It's only geeky fun
G C
Surely no real crime is done?

F C
It started as a tool for doing really big sums
F C
Soon they will exceed an exa FLOP
F C
We'll predict the path of a hurricane and G7
save a million lives
