Intro (sprightly, and slightly eccentric!) E D B A x4

E		C		B
	Without his sunshine,		night beckons rain
E		C		B
	Without her morning smile,		he blows a cold refrain
	Couldn't forecast it ahead,		now I'm single in a double bed
D		A		B
	Need to find another place,		where the weather is good...

E D B A x2

E		C		B
	So I booked myself a package tour,		and flew down to Spain
E		C		B
	18-30 on the hotel floor,		with legs to entertain
	After extra hot hors-d'oeuvres,		she had no more to serve
D		A		B
	Sadly no food for thought,		at least the weather was good

slower, pick : E B C—D A-- B

E
	So I arrived back home
B		C	D	A	A-B
	Head and back a little sore,		oh after-sun,	won't you come to soothe me?
E		B
	I went into an outdoor store,		and there she was beside the door
	C	D	A	B
	A rucksack attack,		to hold me, up

Instrumental over E D B A x2

E		C		B
	We've been married two years now,		sub-urban bliss
E		C		B
	Now when the sky turns black,		things don't go amiss
	Got the perfect wedding gift,		a high tech, Gortex winter shift
D		A		B
	Arm in arm we don't get wet,		because together the weather is good

E D B A x4 (slow on last B A) ----- E let ring
